THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

Intelligence Community Staff

25 November 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution List

SUBJECT : Economic Intelligence for National Security

1. Last spring a number of senior-level officials of the intelligence community agreed that it would be useful to commission a study of economic intelligence in the broadest context. Accordingly, I contracted with [redacted] to examine the economic intelligence production and collection carried on by the US Government.

2. With the assistance of [redacted] of my staff, and after conversations with many key individuals in the intelligence community, [redacted] has produced the thorough and comprehensive study attached. I believe that the paper in general, but Part I in particular, deserves your attention and consideration. But please note that the views expressed herein are those of [redacted] and are not necessarily endorsed by the Director of Central Intelligence.

Samuel V. Wilson
Lieutenant General, USA
Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence Community
